

Publishing Agreement

The agreement is between the Creator/Contributor further referred to as “Licensor” domiciled and the Juliusz Schauder Center for Nonlinear Studies at Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń with headquarters in Toruń, further referred to as “Licensee”, represented by the Director of the Juliusz Schauder Center for Nonlinear Studies.

§ 1

1. The Licensor states that the article/related rights item, further referred to as “Work”, submitted to the journal Topological Methods in Nonlinear Analysis, does not infringe the rights of third parties, especially copyrights or related rights.
2. The Licensor states that in the scope included in the contract he has copyrights /related rights. Using the Work shall not infringe the rights of third parties.

§ 3

1. Upon the Work acceptance for distribution the Licensor grants the Licensee an exclusive license, for the whole period of copyright protection, to use the Work specified within the following fields:
 - a) recording of Work;
 - b) reproduction (multiplication) of Work in print and digital technology;
 - c) placing the copies of the multiplied Work on the market;
 - d) entering the Work to computer memory;
 - e) distribution of the Work in electronic version in the open access form on the basis of Creative Commons license (CC BY-ND 3.0) including via the digital platforms of the Scientific Publishing House of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, the J. P. Schauder Center for Nonlinear Studies and other platforms bound by an agreement with the Licensee, and the file repository of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń.
2. Usage of the recorded Work by the Licensee within the above fields is not restricted by time, numbers or territory.
3. Making the Work, referred to in pass. 1, point e), available to the public, will be in two phases:
 - a) part of the Work in the form of: an abstract, keywords, bibliography – immediately after the Work’s printing.
 - b) the Work as a whole – 5 years after the Work’s printing.

§ 4

The Licensor grants the license for the Work to the Licensee free of charge.

§ 5

The Licensor undertakes to deliver the Work in the electronic form executed substantially, formally and in terms of language – with due diligence and at the level required for the publication of such works.

§ 6

1. The Licensor agrees to the change of the format of the document in which the Work was delivered to the Licensee. Change of the format should be justified with using the work on the basis of the contract.
2. The Licensee, making the change of the format, is obliged to keep the content and the form of the deposited material and not to infringe the moral rights of the creator of the Work.

§ 7

1. The Licensee is entitled to use the fragments of the work for promotional purposes, especially he can:
 - a) make fragments available in the mass media (radio, press, the Internet),
 - b) publish fragments in free booklets,
 - c) quote in advertisements.

§ 8

1. The Licensee is entitled to make necessary changes to Work resulting from editing.
2. Refusal of making the author's correction or not sending the correction back within the time specified by the editor is considered as the Licensor granting the right to publish the Work in the form sent for correction.
3. The author may not make significant changes to the content of the Work given for author's correction that would exceed 3% of the content of the Work and not agreed upon with the editor. Changes including, among others, introduction of new fragments of the Work or exchange of existing paragraphs with new ones can be done only if agreed upon with the editor if they do not raise the cost of edition and composition of the text.
4. If the author introduces changes outside the first author's correction, and especially changes leading to a new composition, the cost of the work shall be borne by the author on the basis of a calculation made by the editor.

§ 9

Any amendments and additions to the contract require a written form to be valid.

§ 10

Any disputes that may arise in connection to this contract shall be settled by the court having jurisdiction over the headquarters of the Licensee.

§ 11

In issues not regulated by this contract the provisions of the copyright and related rights act and the Polish Civil Code are used.
